

- What: Cookbooks for a Cause -- Support Emma's Torch
- When: Wednesday, April 17, 2024
- Where: VIP 6-8:30pm, regular entry 6:30-8:30pm
Spread-mmms Kitchen
Pfizer Building, Spread-mmms Kitchen
630 Flushing Avenue, 8th Floor, Brooklyn, NY
- Price: VIP $45 (early access, 5 cookbooks of your choice);
Regular Ticket $25 (3 cookbooks of your choice)
- Note: Net proceeds will be donated to Emma's Torch. If arriving after the start of the event, enter through the rear door (entrance on Tompkins Ave).

Join the NYWCA and fellow foodies as we explore a treasure trove of over 400 cookbooks from around the world (out-of-print, vintage, signed and classics), while supporting Emma's Torch. Dive into the cookbook collection donated by former NYWCA Board Member Terry Frishman of Culinest and select some new favorites to take home.

Enjoy conversations and a short talk about "Why We Love Cookbooks: a sense of time, place, family, and moving forward with food" from Barkha Cardoz (with Love & Masalas). Each ticket includes cookbooks, complimentary beer (NA options available), cheese and charcuterie bites (vegan options available). This event will benefit Emma's Torch and those they help in the culinary world.

This event is for 21+
